

Urban Renaissance Villages Limited

For immediate release
18 MAY 2010

BRAMSHOTT PLACE VILLAGE IS THE PERFECT PARTNER FOR THE BRAMSHOTT OPEN GARDENS FESTIVAL

The developers of Bramshott Place Village, Urban Renaissance Villages and Helical Bar, are delighted to be the major sponsor of the very popular Bramshott Open Gardens Festival, and have just handed the organising committee a cheque for £5,000. The biannual event this year takes place over the weekend of 12th and 13th June, where almost 30 private gardens within a one mile radius of Bramshott church will be throwing open their gates to visitors, and proceeds will go to three excellent causes: Bramshott Church roof repairs; Macmillan Trust and Bramshott Sunken Lanes.

Bill Gair, Chief Executive of Urban Renaissance Villages said the ethos of the Festival and its place within the heart of the local community mirrors exactly the principles and feel of Bramshott Place Village. "The community within Bramshott Place Village and its links with the local area, are really becoming established and it is excellent for us to have the opportunity to support such a worthwhile event with which we have so much synergy."

The 2008 Festival attracted 700 visitors, but this year the organisers are hoping to bring in 1000 or more. It is certainly expected to be a major event. The wide variety of gardens open for inspection will range from large formal grounds designed by Gertrude Jekyll to traditional cottage and courtyard gardens, and all providing inspiration and ideas to take home and try. A mini bus will take visitors from one garden to another, free of charge. Visitors can also enjoy a barbeque lunch, afternoon tea, a concert recital and a dazzling flower display in the 12th century St Mary's Church. More details are available at www.bramshottopengardens.org.uk

Bill Gair, Urban Renaissance Villages (second left) hands over the sponsorship cheque to the Bramshott Open Gardens Committee - Craig McGregor (L), Tony Rudgard (second R) and Angela Glass

Bramshott Place Village is now well established and many of the apartments and cottages are occupied. The exclusive Clubhouse provides a restaurant, bar, library and leisure facilities including a hydrotherapy pool. Prices range from £300,000 to £495,000 for apartments and from £440,000 to £535,000 for cottages. Further information about the homes available for sale at Bramshott Place Village is available from the marketing suite on 01428 722800, or by visiting www.bramshottplace.co.uk

-Ends-

Note for editors:

For media information please contact:

Lucy Matthews on 07810 125547 or lm@rlspr.com