

Urban Renaissance Villages Limited

For immediate release
25 JULY 2010

BRAMSHOTT PLACE VILLAGE SPONSORS LOCAL HORTICULTURE

Bramshott Place Village has had a decidedly horticultural flavour this year, sponsoring two important local voluntary initiatives. For the second year running the over 55s development has sponsored a beautiful flower bed outside the main post office sorting office in Liphook as part of the award winning Liphook in Bloom project.

Also this year, Bramshott Place Village was the major sponsor of the highly successful Bramshott Open Gardens Weekend and Flower Festival which took place in June, attracting over 900 visitors and raising more than £12,500 for three charities - Macmillan Cancer Support, St Mary's Church, and the Bramshott and Liphook Preservation Society's Sunken Lanes Project.

The Liphook in Bloom Committee with Sue Lapicki from Bramshott Place Village (second from the right)

L to R: Craig McGregor, Chairman of the Bramshott Open Gardens Committee, Jill Meech, representing Macmillan Cancer Support, and Adrian Bird of the Bramshott and Liphook Preservation Society, Alison Bennett, Curate of St. Mary's, and Lucy Matthews from Bramshott Place Village.

Bramshott Place Village is now well established and many of the apartments and cottages are occupied. The exclusive Clubhouse provides a restaurant, bar, library and leisure facilities including a hydrotherapy pool. Prices range from £295,000 to £525,000. Further information call 01428 722800, or visiting www.bramshottplace.co.uk

-Ends-

Note for editors:

For media information please contact: Lucy Matthews on 07810 125547 or lucy@lucymatthews.co.uk